Generative Conflict Map

Rest and Integrate

Harvest Learning

No conflict! Celebrate, rest and grow

Find Holding

Anchor Belonging Solve and resolve, or let it go and proceed to 7, or continue to 2

Explore Emergence

Supported Soul Inquiry

Repair and integrate, or repair and diverge and proceed to 7 Or continue to 3

Co-Create Ritual

Community Process

With the help of a professional ritualist, expand community and self with ritual technologies or create a powerful and choiceful parting that honors all. Continue to 7

Spin Story

History and Context

Enrich intimacy and create repair, or understand irreconcilable differences and proceed to 7, or proceed to 4

Queer Conflict

Go beyond binaries

Shift from stereotypes to archetypes. Proceed to 7, if this ends the conflict. Or, proceed to 6

Pick your battles

Consider costs and scale

Collapse conflict and proceed to 7, or escalate conflict into another model. Or, stay with the Generative Conflict model and proceed to 5

The Generative Conflict Map is made from and for the movement that guides us to address harm without relying on violent systems that increase harm. A first version of this graphic was drawn by Kai Cheng Thom from the work of Caffyn Jesse and Tricia Bowler and it has been redrawn here by Caffyn. All are welcome to use, adapt, redraw and share.